

WEAR BLUE: POST A PHOTO OF YOU

TO RAISE AWARENESS OF CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH IN APRIL

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

The color blue used to raise awareness for child abuse prevention.

Last year, an estimated 678,000 children were found to be victims of child abuse or neglect nationwide. The most common type of maltreatment is neglect.

This month and throughout the year, Children's Hope Alliance encourages all individuals and organizations to play a role in making North Carolina a better place for children and families.

Take a photo of yourself and/or your family dressed in blue and post it to your social media pages with a message about wearing blue for Child Abuse Prevention Month in April.

HOPE, HEALTH, and HEALING
for generations.
